Experience & Specialist Fields

David is a Chartered Certified Accountant.

David has provided litigation support services to the legal profession as a party expert witness, SJE and expert adviser throughout the South East and in London for over 12 years and accountancy and tax related matters. He has acted as adviser and SJE in mediation and other ADR matters.

David also runs a full service accountancy and tax advisory practice, acting for a wide range of business, charity and private clients, encompassing a variety of business sizes, types and sectors. David has acted as statutory auditor to a number of companies and charities and has prepared reports under the Solicitors Accounts Rules. David's extensive experience as a practising accountant and auditor is invaluable to his expert witness duties.

David has prepared reports on a wide range of matters including:

- Company/business valuation (and related tax issues) in commercial and matrimonial actions;
- Commercial, shareholder and partnership disputes, including minority actions;
- Business interruption and loss of profits claims;
- Loss of earnings & fatal accident claims;
- Professional negligence;
- Tax, VAT and commercial fraud;
- Confiscation orders and POCA matters;

Court Attendances

David has given evidence in County, Magistrates and Crown Courts and has attended as expert in Principal Registry and High Court proceedings.

Career History

David qualified in 1995, having trained locally in a general full service accountancy practice. In 2000, he became a partner in a mid-Kent firm, but left in March 2011 to form his own practice, Ackland Webb.
