Experience & specialist field

Peter Tagg joined Hobsons' forensic team in 2002 and since then has been involved in the preparation of numerous reports. These reports have covered a wide range of cases arising from personal injuries (including fatal accidents), loss of profits/earnings claims and business valuations for matrimonial and commercial purposes. Some cases have included pension dependency claims. He has also had experience of fraud and confiscation cases.

Court Attendances

He has been present in court in respect of matrimonial and commercial dispute proceedings but he has not appeared as a witness.

Career History

Joined Hobsons as a partner in 2001 on the merger with Reeve and Duffin, Chartered accountants, a three-partner practice and had been a partner in that firm since 1979. Most of his professional life has been spent in practices providing a wide variety of services to individuals and family businesses. He retired from the partnership in 2014, but continues to work with Hobsons as a consultant.

Professional memberships

Peter is a member of The Expert Witness Institute and has attended courses run by the institute and The Academy of experts, in addition to those held by NIFA itself.

Qualifications

Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, having qualified in 1974.
